LAW Enforcement & Emergency Services Personnel:

The bearer of this letter is employed by Infinity of Page Home Health Services in an essential capacity, providing home care services to vulnerable individuals, elder and disabled clients, who rely on these caregivers for their essential needs in their homes. Many are not able to leave their homes alone or obtain health care elsewhere at this time. Both President Trumps and President Nez of the Navajo Nation have National Emergency Orders and state/local, Tribal shelter-in-place orders exempt essential services including health care providers/caregivers.

This letter verifies the essential nature of the bearer's duties and is not indented in any way to encroach upon the authority and laws of state, local and Tribal governmental authorities. This designation is only meant to address travel to and from work assignments if you need to verify the bearer's employment and that she/he is currently on assignment with Infinity of Page Home Health please contact their direct Supervisor Melinda Daw at 928-645-6862 or emergency number 928-206-7265

Sincerely yours,

Lynnette Adams
